

2.0 Guidelines

A. General

Non-members or Junior firefighters are not allowed on department property after 10:00 p.m. (Jr FF are allowed if going to or coming back from a call). Other than family members unless approved by the Chief or an officer.

Any member that is hosting guests on department property will be responsible for the building, its contents, and will be held responsible for any damage or problems created by such.

Any member that brings their children to the station shall supervise them at all times. Children should not be allowed to run freely around the station if the parent has responded to a call or during training.

No private vehicles are to be left on the property overnight without approval of the Chief or an officer.

POV are not allowed in the bays.

Department property is not to be removed without the permission of the Chief or an officer. If any property is removed without consent it can be considered stolen property and criminal charges may be filed.

All members are responsible for keeping the department clean and in order.

Members shall be responsible for maintaining and proper cleaning of all personal protective equipment issued to them by the department.

There will be no use of tobacco products in any department apparatus or on calls.

There will be no smoking inside any CFD fire stations.

No member may be under the influence of alcoholic beverage(s) or a drug(s) during any department function or response. If a member is believed to be under the influence, at the discretion of the Chief or any officer, that member will be requested to submit to a drug and/or alcohol screening at the fire department's expense. The member will be placed on suspension during any pending investigation.

Any threat to the Chief or any other member of the department will be resolved through a hearing by the officers and could result in termination.

Any insubordination to the Chief or any other officer of the department will not be tolerated.

Sexual harassment will not be tolerated from any member of the department.

B. Officers

Officers are allowed to respond POV to the scene.

No officer is to respond POV to any call with out turn out gear.

All officers must notify by radio that they are responding.

No officer is to respond to a scene until it is verified that sufficient personnel are responding to the station to bring any needed apparatus to the call.

C. Firefighters

Firefighters are to respond to the station.

Firefighters should never respond POV to any scene unless otherwise instructed by an officer.

Firefighters are not to carry turn out gear with them unless approved by the chief.

Firefighters that are CPR and AED certified can respond to medical calls but cannot go on scene until there is a certified EMR, EMT or paramedic on scene.

Firefighters that are not CPR and AED certified cannot respond to medical calls.

Firefighters are not to have emergency lighting or sirens on their POV unless they have completed 150hrs (level 1 FF) , reached 21 years of age, completed 12 hours of emergency vehicle operation drivers training class and have written approval from the chief. After completing the class room portion of the EVO class member must complete and pass the cone and road course annually.

At any time that you are responding to a call and then told to signal 8 or disregard, the equipment is to be returned back to the station.

Firefighters are not to use any apparatus from the fire department for another department's call or any other purposes unless requested by the other department, central dispatch or an officer.

The Chief must first approve and sign a letter for any member who wishes to get a volunteer firefighter license plate.

D. Junior Firefighters (Explorers)
